

Grace Group Questions:

Where have you seen fear keep you behind locked doors—emotionally, spiritually, or relationally? How do you think Jesus responds when we're in that space?

What kinds of doubt feel hardest for you to talk about? What does it look like to bring that doubt honestly to Jesus?

How did Jesus respond to Thomas's conditions for belief? What do you notice about how Jesus meets him?

In what ways have the "scars" of Jesus become real to you—through Scripture, community, or personal experience?

What might it look like to help someone else walk through their doubt, not around it? How can your faith story become part of someone else's doorway?
