

Sermon Title: The Compass and the Cross

Sermon Text: Genesis 22:1-14

Sermon Outline

1. God's call can seem confusing.
2. This call seems horrific.
3. The destination is the difference.

Why It Matters: Jesus is the difference, because Jesus is the resurrection—and the resurrection is the destination.

Grace Group Questions:

1. Where in your life are you asking God for GPS clarity—but He's given you a compass instead?
2. What makes the story of Genesis 22 feel so disturbing—and yet so hopeful?
3. How have you tried to build your own version of "paradise" here on earth?
4. What does it mean to live with "resurrection faith"?
5. How could the image of the net—God's promises holding you—change how you view your present struggles?
