Living in Light of God

1 Peter 5:6-11

1. Will said we all have a tendency to live as though spiritual realities (even God himself) are not in the equation. When recently have you found that to be true in your own life?

2. How is casting your anxieties on God an act of humility? How is not doing so an act of pride on our part?

3. Is there a burden/anxiety you carry (perhaps long-term) that you struggle to cast on God? What do you think makes that one so hard to throw on Him?

4. Do you think of Satan more as a cartoon or a real enemy? How does this impact your resistance to him, his lies, and his evil attacks?

5. Think of a particular attack you have experienced. What has resisting Satan personally and communally looked like for you? What could it look like in the future?

6. What is one way that being called to God's eternal glory impacts your life today?
