

Sermon-Specific Discussion Questions — John 17:6-19

1. Is it naturally harder for you to be in the world (you tend toward a Christian bubble) or for you to be not of the world (you tend to live just like everyone around you)?
2. In what ways does Jesus want you personally to be set apart? In what places and relationships is He sending you particularly into the world?
3. How does listening in to Jesus' prayer for you here encourage you? How will it change the way you pray for yourself and others you love?
